The 2nd Sunday of Easter is "Divine Mercy Sunday."

When Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina in the jubilee year of 2000, he added the title to this day. In visions, Faustina heard Jesus request that the image of Divine Mercy be venerated on the Sunday after Easter, a day John Paul lovingly chose for Faustina's canonization.

Many communities display the image of Divine Mercy on this day. Jesus' penetrating, compassionate gaze reaches out to the viewer. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbols of blood and water – Eucharist and Baptism. Many Catholics confess their sins or pray before the Blessed Sacrament in conjunction with this feast.

A priest may use the prayers from the votive Mass for Divine Mercy on any day when a stronger feast does not conflict. The Second Sunday of Easter has its own prayers and readings, so the votive Mass for Divine Mercy is never permitted on that day. Instead we observe the much older tradition of the octave day of Easter. The Gospel story of the doubting Thomas is heard every year on this day because Jesus appeared to him a week after the resurrection. The other texts for this Mass refer to the season and to Baptism. This day used to be called Dominica in albis, the Sunday of white garments, because those baptized at the Easter Vigil wore their new vesture to conclude a week of catechesis about the sacraments. Today the only change to this liturgy is its title: the Second Sunday of Easter, or Divine Mercy Sunday.

The mercy of God may be proclaimed in the homily or the prayer of the faithful, but especially in the actions of believers, who extend God's mercy to all they meet. *This bulletin insert originally appeared in Ministry & Liturgy, a pastoral planning resource used by the worship leaders in your parish as an aid for better liturgy. # Pastor's Notes

© J.S. Faluch Co., Inc.

Dear Parishioners,

I speak on behalf of myself and all our community of faith as I wholeheartedly congratulate our neophytes:

Deborah Druzisky
Rebecca Blackwell
Kayla DeSoto
Kenneth Soto Gomez
Jaime Hernandez
Keith Jones
Kelly Jones

They are new members of the Catholic Church, who received their sacraments for the first time at the Easter Vigil in our parish. These people have studied and prayed for two years and have now been baptized, confirmed and have received their First Holy Communion. I ask you to continue to pray and support them in the faith and to welcome them as they come to participate in our liturgies and activities.

It is also with my sincere gratitude that I offer my thanks to everyone who helped to create a wonderful and prayerful environment for the Triduum and a joyous celebration of Easter.

Thank you to the RCIA team, the leaders of the children's catechumenate, the parish staff and those who volunteered their time to this tremendous effort. Thanks also to the kind souls who sent cards, goodies, and a flower arrangement to the staff and I! You are truly blessed!

I have been blessed to have such kind people in our community of faith. I am thankful for being a pastor of a parish that is life-giving and hospitable.

This is truly an outward sign that we are a faith-filled people. May God bless you all, and may this Easter Season bring joy and prosperity into your lives.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Bede Wevita

Position "Coordinator of Youth Ministry"

Application deadline — May 31, 2011

St. John Neumann Catholic Church, a parish of 1,600 households in North Las Vegas, Nevada, seeks a dynamic individual to develop a comprehensive youth ministry program that empowers and motivates our parish youth. This position provides vision and coordination for the parish's efforts in ministry to young people in Junior High, High School, and those preparing for Confirmation. Ideal candidate is an active practicing Catholic with knowledge of Catholic teachings and scripture; strong work ethics; and excellent oral and written communication skills. Coordinator must be able to recruit and train volunteers and integrate youth into general parish life. This is a part-time position. Please Email, Fax, or mail résumé, cover letter, and three references to:

Are you a fully initiated Catholic?

—One that has received not only Baptism and 1st Eucharist, but also the sacrament of Confirmation. If the answer is NO, then RCIA is for you. Also, if you or someone you know is considering becoming Catholic, come to a Thursday evening meeting at 7 pm and see what it is all about. The process is very interesting. Practicing Catholics are also needed to sponsor those who wish to join the church. Come, learn, ask questions and make friends.

Bulletin Advertisers

Please patronize our bulletin advertisers. It's because of them we have this weekly publication. If you are interested in advertising in the bulletin, please call the parish office.

TV Masses

TV Masses for the Easter season (5th, 6th, Ascension, Pentecost, and Most Holy Trinity Sundays) will be celebrated and taped on WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, at 8, 8:45, 9:30, 10:15, & 11:00 am.

These Masses are for the benefit of the elderly and shut-ins in our diocese. They are a part of our Catholic Christian family. Our attendance helps them to feel more involved through our participation as we respond to the celebrant, and sing. If you can attend any or all of these Masses, (especially the later Masses) you can become part of an essential ministry.

The masses can be viewed every Sunday at 7:30 am on channel 33, or cable channel 6.

Marthas & Marys

Our next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, May 10th, 2011 @ 7 pm in the Youth Room. We will be voting in our newly elected Board Members and making plans for the annual dinner. Women age 18 years and older are welcome to join us in fellowship and fun.

EMPTY

Andrew was born with mild Down Syndrome. He loved to go to religion class on Sunday. His classmates mostly ignored him.

On the Sunday after Easter the teacher gave out plastic eggs, one to each child, and they went outside to find symbols of new life to put in the eggs. Back indoors the teacher opened the first egg: there was a beautiful flower. In the second was a butterfly and in the third a green leaf. The fourth was empty. The children said, "Somebody did it wrong."

"It's mine," Andrew said. "I did do it right! The tomb is empty!" There was sudden silence. From that time on, Andrew became a part of the group, set free from the tomb of his difference. Copyright © 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Memorial Flowers

The weekend's flowers may be donated in memory of friends or family, for a special life event, or for any other reason. Cost is $100.00 to memorialize flowers with your message and all memorials will be published in the bulletin.

Please call the parish office to make arrangements.
